Hitting a “Pandemic Wall”? Feeling exhausted or burnt out? You’re not alone.

11 Ways to Deal with Pandemic Fatigue

From Erin Bunch at wellandgood.com

1. Make a list of coping strategies, or simply things that make you happy.
2. Make changes to your to-do list by breaking large tasks into smaller parts
3. Make it a point to socialize
4. Install self-care measures around news consumption and social media use
5. Share your experiences, others will be able to relate
6. Look for small moments to enliven you; acknowledge the little things
7. Find safe ways to get out of your home
8. Do something that makes you feel more like yourself
9. Make plans for after the pandemic
10. Take control where you can, at a time when a lot is out of our control
11. Seek professional help

Ways to support your child's mental health:

- ❖ Talk with your child about the pandemic
- ❖ Reassure them they are safe, and that it is okay to feel upset
- ❖ Share with them how you deal with your own stress
- ❖ Keep up with regular routines
- ❖ Spend meaningful time together
